

INDUSTRIAL ENGINEER

POSITION SUMMARY: The Industrial Engineer provides a wide variety of sustaining engineering and technical support to production and operations.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develop and implement documentation, methods, and training required to support the most effective and efficient procurement, assembly, and testing of manufactured products.
- Reassessment of factory flow cycle times to accurately match changes to processes
- Time and motion study of floor to support closing labor efficiency gaps
- Assist in assessing movement of material flow on factory floor
- Making labor location changes and tool location changes to minimize/remove transport
- Define and implement cost effective use of tooling/fixtures, test equipment and workspace utilization to improve quality and efficiency
- Provide timely and effective hands on problem resolution.
- Focus on continuous improvement opportunities, cost reduction and fast corrective actions.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- B.S. degree in Plastics, Chemical or Mechanical Engineering is required. Must have 5+ years of practical work experience in a manufacturing environment.
- Strong and diverse technical background in tooling, equipment, materials, manufacturing and quality.
- Lean Manufacturing
- ISO 9001:2015
- Self-starter must be able to work with little direction and with a high level of self-motivation.
- Factory and or Work Cell Layout
- Demonstrated ability to think out of the box and recommend options.
- Ability to lead others, responsibility may include indirect supervision of process technicians Demonstrated ability to work both independently and as part of a team to achieve outcomes.
- Strong written and oral communications skills

All employees are expected to set the highest level of safety expectation in their work, display the highest level of safe behavior, actively participate in PSIMP's safety program, and adhere to all safety rules and regulations. Employee Health & Safety is a part of our company culture and participation is required for all employees.

PSIMP an Equal Opportunity Employer.
ISO 9001:2015 Registered